

Music and Dance in Orff Schulwerk

CONTENTS

Foreword

Shirley Salmon

Introduction

Barbara Haselbach, Verena Maschat, Carolee Stewart

PART I – HISTORICAL AND THEORETICAL BACKGROUND

The Munich Günther-Schule (1924-1944): Cradle of the Orff Schulwerk

Esther Cappon Gray (USA)

Movement and Dance in the Teacher Training at the Orff Institute

Barbara Haselbach (Austria), Verena Maschat (Austria/Spain)

Sound in Movement – Music in Dance

James Harding (USA), Verena Maschat (Austria/Spain), Angelika Wolf (Austria/UK)

Building Blocks of the Orff Schulwerk Pedagogy

Manuela Widmer (Austria)

A Culture of Collaboration

Sofía López-Ibor (Spain/USA)

Influences of Embodiment and Cognitive Neuroscience Research on Dance Pedagogy

Robyn Stavely (Australia)

Overview of Various Applications of Movement and Dance in the Orff Schulwerk

Barbara Haselbach (Austria), Angelika Wolf (Austria/UK)

Teaching and Learning Strategies for Creative Dance in Orff Schulwerk: Learners' Agency, Artistry, and Feedback

Christa Coogan (USA/Germany), Andrea Sangiorgio (Italy/Germany)

Online Teaching and Learning: A Framework for Enhancing the Quality of Kinesthetic Experiences in Movement and Music

Franziska Böhm (Germany), Christa Coogan (USA/Germany)

PART II – TOPICS

Children's Games and Dances

Introduction by Doug Goodkin (USA)

Examples by Ana Rosa García del Fresno (Spain),

Kalliopi Mastrogiannopoulou (Greece), Sencer Özbay (Turkey)

Improvisation and Elemental Choreography

Susan Kennedy (USA), Hana Novotná (Czech Republic),

Patrick Ware (USA), Angelika Wolf (Austria/UK)

Traditional Dances: Folk, Historical, and Social Dances

Verena Maschat (Austria/Spain) with Tamara Figueroa (Argentina),

Danai Gagné (Greece/USA)

Movement, Dance, and Elemental Drama

Manuela Widmer (Austria) with Astrid Bosshard (Switzerland),
Katerina Sarropoulou (Greece), Natalya Shestopalova (Russia)

Movement/Dance and the Fine Arts

Barbara Haselbach (Austria), Sofía López-Ibor (Spain/USA),
Raquel Pastor Prada (Spain), Warangkana Siripachote (Thailand)

Movement, Dance, and Speech

Christine Schönherr (Austria) with Françoise Grenier (Canada),
Barbara Haselbach (Austria), Christoph Maubach (Germany/New Zealand)

PART III – TARGET GROUPS

The Importance of Creative Music and Movement in the Early Stages of Life

Bethany Elsworth (Australia/Canada), Nadja Kraft (Austria/UK),
Wakako Nagaoko (Japan), Soili Perkiö (Finland)

Moving Forward. Looking into the Primary Classroom

Michele Ellis (Australia/Netherlands), İlkay Nişancı (Turkey),
Victoria Redfearn Cave (USA), Michaela Reif-Schnaidt (Germany)

Movement and Dance with Teenagers in Schools and Recreational Settings

Peta Harper (Australia), Judith Thompson-Barthwell (USA),
Doris Valtiner-Pühringer (Austria), Michel Widmer (Austria)

Movement and Dance with Adults and Seniors

Greacian Goeke (USA), Sister M. Johannita Kweon (South Korea), Insuk Lee
(South Korea/Germany), Andrea Ostertag (Austria), Christine Schönherr (Austria)

Dance in Music Schools

Anida Chan, Maggie Ho (Hong Kong), Isabel Galeza (Germany),
Miriam Gurbanov (Argentina), Fátima Moreno González (Spain)

Movement and Dance with Inclusive / Mixed-abled Groups in the Context of Orff Schulwerk

Tetiana Chernous (Ukraine), Angelika Holzer (Austria), Evelyne Walser-Wohlfarter (Austria)

Movement/Dance Projects with Diverse Target Groups

Insuk Lee (South Korea/Germany), Annabell Opelt (Germany), Sonja Pfennigbauer &
Vivi Tanzmeister (Austria), Paul Scheer (Austria), Manuela Widmer (Austria)

APPENDIX

Selected Bibliography

Authors

The International Orff-Schulwerk Forum Salzburg

Orff-Schulwerk Associations Around the World

Network of Associated Schools and Institutions

Texts on Theory and Practice of Orff-Schulwerk

Volume 1: Basic Texts from the Years 1932-2010

Volume 2: Orff Schulwerk in Diverse Cultures

The Orff Institute at the University Mozarteum Salzburg